Description :

PDF-50852 | In the creation of a new society, there are always winners and losers. So it was in Australia as it grew through invasion, settlement and development from a colonial outpost to an affluent industrial society. This book tells the history of Australia from the standpoint of those who were dispossessed, the original Australians. Too often, Australian history is recounted as a saga of progress by a de... Aboriginal Australians: Black Response to White Dominance, 1788-1980 (Australian experience)
