Description :

PDF-d76a9 | Gladiator one minute, galley slave the next. Danger, abuse, excitement and tedium, these were the lot of open boat whalers in the South Seas for two centuries. The Nantucketers, the first and the best, taught the world how whaling should be done. Ahab's Trade tracks the rise and fall of this first global industry and tells the story of the men who made it. Although they whaled in American, British... Ahab's Trade: The Saga of South Seas Whaling
