Description :

PDF-8ecc7 | From time immemorial, a people called the Djabugay lived in the rainforests behind Cairns in Tropical Far North Queensland. Trade routes from the coast to the lush tablelands and beyond linked established settlements; outrigger canoes voyaged along the coast and out into the Great Barrier Reef. Today, 130 years after the coming of the white man, the Djabugay are a remnant - their lands taken away f... Djabugay Country: An Aboriginal History of Tropical North Queensland
