Description :

PDF-e7ba3 | For the Chinese, the drive toward growing political and economic power is part of an ongoing effort to restore China's past greatness and remove the lingering memories of history's humiliations. This widely praised book explores the 1500–1800 period before China's decline, when the country was viewed as a leading world culture and power. Europe, by contrast, was in the early stages of emerging f... The Great Encounter of China and the West, 1500–1800 (Critical Issues in World and International History)
