Description :

PDF-1132d | When the ships of the new Royal Australian Navy made their grand entry into Sydney Harbour in October 1913, a young nation was at peace. Under a year later Australia had gone to war in what was seen as a noble fight for king, country, and Empire. Thousands of young men joined up for the adventure of having "a crack at the Kaiser." And indeed the German threat to Australia was real, and very near... First Victory
