Description :

PDF-6a7a2 | Combining "the gathering of artefacts with the gathering of souls," George Brown was a key figure in the Christian, and especially the Wesleyan Methodist, history of nineteenth-century Oceania. Using his life as a case study, Hellen Bethea Gardner examines the role of Christian missionaries in the Pacific Islands. Brown's career (1860-1908) spanned one of the most tumultuous political periods in th... Gathering for God: George Brown in Oceania
