Description :

PDF-6e950 | Judith Hollinshed first arrived in the remote Western Highlands of Papua New Guinea wearing two stiffened petticoats and the naive enthusiasm of a young wife. It was 1956, pre-independence and the excitement and trials of forging a life in wild and isolated country were an adventure for this Australian. Set during a time of extraordinary social and political upheaval, this book is an account of the... Innocence to Independence: Life in the Papua New Guinea Highlands 1956-1980
