Description :

PDF-fecd2 | In recent decades, Malaysia has been profoundly changed both by forces of globalization, modernization, and industrialization and by a strong Islamization process. Some would argue that the situation of Malay women has worsened, but such a conclusion is challenged by this study of the everyday religious practice of pious women within Kuala Lumpur's affluent Malay middle class. Here, women play an ... Submitting to God: Women and Islam in Urban Malaysia (Critical Dialogues in Southeast Asian Studies)
