ISBN : #0521436117 | Date : 1993-07-30

Description :

PDF-27b86 | In 1902 when New South Wales women celebrated the granting of their right to vote, suffragist Rose Scott told the male politicians present that their names would be remembered "not only in the history of Australia but in that of the world," while the names of the women would be forgotten. Her words have held true for the best part of this century, until the publication of this book. Woman Suffrage... Woman Suffrage in Australia (Studies in Australian History)
