Description :

PDF-f0788 | “No other writer has turned out a book on the fighting in New Guinea that can match Mr. Johnston’s. Superior literary quality projects this work far in advance of those earlier and more hasty accounts. Mr. Johnston is a young Australian war correspondent who lived through most of the action he describes. The reader will know that from the first page and is apt to find himself tensely hunched u... The Toughest Fighting in the World: The Australian and American Campaign for New Guinea in World War II
